ABSTRACT

The purpose of this guidance training is to provide knowledge and skill to the field supervisors in conducting guidance to students who are practicing a Teaching Practice at school so that teachers can provide a good guidance and assessment according to the objectives of the PPL held by the future teachers.

The training was held on 6 October 2017 at the Faculty of Languages and Arts. Participants training PPL supervisor teachers in Yogyakarta and surrounding areas and lecturers in French Language Education FBS UNY. Number of participants is 23 people. Training activities in the form of material delivery and simulation of mentoring practices and discussions. The initial plan of activities will be carried out several days with practice directly at school. However, due to limited funds, activities are only done within one day and simulations are conducted at the training site.
