

TRAINING OF LEARNING NEEDS ANALYSIS PROGRAM TO IMPROVE STANDARDS OF SCHOOL EDUCATION SERVICES FOR THE DEPUTY HEAD OF CURRICULUM IN THE YOGYAKARTA PROVINCE

by Estu Miyarso, Sugeng Bayu Wahyono, Deni Hardiyanto

ABSTRACT

Community service activities is aimed to improve the standard of education services through the Deputy Head of Curriculum in the area DIY. And improving the understanding and analysis skills learning program needs to Deputy Head of Curriculum at the Provincial DIY.

PPM activities carried out in the form of training. The methods used in these activities are: lectures, discussion, practice formulate problems, and tutorials on line. The material presented in this activity include: basic concepts of writing scientific papers, the benefits and importance of scientific papers for elementary school teachers, technical appearance of an idea or a scientific idea, procedure writing scientific papers.

PPM activities received a positive response from teachers, vice-principals areas of the curriculum and the Education Office in the District of Sleman. It is characterized by the number of participants who have met the targets and enthusiastically follow the course of events until after the PPM hope even if this kind of activity can be repeated. The assessment of the results of both an increase in the ability of participants and assessment process of the activities have met the criteria and indicators that have been set.

Kata Kunci: Learning Needs Analysis Program, Standards Service Education, The Deputy Head of Curriculum