

Development Of Multimedia Learning models for Strengthening The Education Of The Teaching Profession (PPG)

by Sunaryo Soenarto, Christina Ismaniati, Rr. Lis Permana Sari,

ABSTRACT

ABSTRACT

Sunaryo Soenarto, Christina Ismaniati, Rr. Lis Permana Sari,

This research aims to know the needs of instructional models for the profession of Teacher education programs, and develop multimedia-based instructional models video quality.

This research method is to use the Research and Development of multimedia-based learning models videos. Research development of models using model of Hannafin and Pack. Using data collection techniques: sheets of observation quality of multimedia-based learning models videos. Quality of multimedia-based learning models based on the assessment of analyzed video media expert learning and learning experts, as well as end users (professors and students PPG).

Quality of multimedia-based learning models video can be reviewed from the aspect of material and media aspects. Expert assessment of the material against the program of multimedia-based learning models video shows both categories with 3.875, while the assessment of media experts stated 4.25 with categories is very good.

Keyword: Multimedia learning models, education teaching profession

Kata Kunci: Multimedia learning models, education teaching profession