

Policy Implementation Based on the Village Fund Law No. 60 2014 for Improving Development In Rural Area, Wukirsari Village, Cangkringan, Sleman

by Fransisca Winarni, M.Si

ABSTRACT

This study aims to determine the implementation of the Dana village in an effort to increase rural development in the village of Cangkringan Sleman Wukirsari. The research approach used in this research is descriptive qualitative. Techniques of data retrieval is done through observation, interview, and review documentation. Subject of the study include: 1) Head Wukirsari village. 2) Secretary Wukirsari village, 3) the village head. 4) Village Community Wukirsari '4) Head of Bappeda (Regional Development Planning Agency) District. Sleman. 5) Head of Secretariat Empowerment in Sleman. Validation of data used triangulation of sources and data analysis techniques used interactive The analysis technique adopted from Mills and Huberman. Research results that the implementation of village funds usage policies under Regulation 60 rahun 2016 Wukirsari village landslide-executed. The result of the development of the use of village funds used for the manufacture of physical pernbangunan embankments and roads. Of the total funds provided had to absorb 100% funding. The success of the implementation of these policies as factors of good communication. The presence of both human capacity and resources adequate funding, bureaucratic structure clear and coordinated. Disposition bureaucratic commitment and integrity to the success of rural development in Wukirsari good.

Kata Kunci: Policy Implementation, the Village Fund, Rural Development