

TRAINING WASTE PROCESSING WITH UPCYCLING TECHNIQUES TO INCREASE FAMILY REVENUES IN HOUSEHOLD MOTHERS IN THE SOURCES OF AGRICULTURAL RESOURCES OF MOYUDAN SLEMAN YOGYAKARTA

by Widiastuti, Widyabakti Sabatari, Triyanto

ABSTRACT

ABSTRACT

Community Service Activities (PPM) aims to provide training on the processing and utilization of plastic waste (an organic) with upcycling techniques with the intention to increase family income to housewives in the hamlet Pendulan Sumber Agung Moyudan Sleman Yogyakarta.

The methods of PPM activity used are lectures, demonstrations, and practices. Activity materials include: (1) utilization of waste in the Bank Trash Pendulan Berseri Padukuhan Pendulan Sumberagung Moyudan Sleman Yogyakarta; (2) how to choose waste that can be processed into a more economical handicraft product; (3) how to process plastic and metal waste by upcycling technique in garbage bank Padukuhan Pendulan Sumberagung Moyudan Sleman Yogyakarta; and (4) how to improve mental mother and baby daughter Padukuhan Pendulan Sumberagung Moyudan Sleman Yogyakarta in processing and utilizing plastic and metal waste into handicraft and art product.

This PPM activity was held on July 28, 2016 - August 21, 2016, attended by approximately 20 participants, with the following activities: (1) the participants were very enthusiastic to participate in plastic waste processing training as evidenced by the spirit of learning, see also the seriousness of completing the task provided by the devotees team; (2) training target can be achieved very well, can be proven from the whole participants (100%). How to make a tablecloth or lopper from the use of plastic waste with beautiful and more economical traces.

Keywords: Training, processing, waste.

Kata Kunci: Training, processing, waste