

ANDROID BASED MEDIA TRAINING AND COUPLING IN THE PANDEMIC ERA COVID-19 TO INCREASE THE PEDAGOGIC COMPETENCE OF HISTORY TEACHERS IN BANTUL REGENCY

by Dr. Aman, M.Pd.

ABSTRACT

This community service activity aims to motivate teachers in the application of Android-based media in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic to improve pedagogical competence in history teachers, increase understanding, ability, and technical practice regarding the application of Android-based media which includes: (1) Providing motivation (build the will) of the history teachers in the use of android media in the COVID-19 pandemic era to improve pedagogical competence, (2) Provide an understanding of history teachers in the use of android-based media in the COVID-19 pandemic era as a learning medium in order to improve pedagogical competence , (3) Improving the technical abilities of history teachers in the use of android-based media in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic as a learning medium to improve teacher pedagogical competence. The target of this activity is history teachers in Bantul Regency who have the will and ability to be trained in the application of android-based media to improve the pedagogical competence of history teachers. The selection and targeting of this training have consideration of field conditions, efforts to improve pedagogical competence of history teachers through training on the use of android-based media in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic to improve pedagogical competence of history teachers in Bantul Regency, and will be carried out by taking representatives history teacher representative of 25 people with training for 2 days or a minimum of 16 hours of meetings. After the implementation of community service activities organized by the PPM Postgraduate team at Yogyakarta State University, the conclusion shows that this community service activity is going well. The activity was carried out via zoom with a focus on training and assistance in the use of android-based media in the Covid-19 pandemic era to improve the pedagogical competence of history teachers in Bantul Regency, Yogyakarta Special Region, material on Indonesian history of teachers who are members of the MGMP History Teachers of Bantul Regency who numbering 25 people. This community service activity aims to provide knowledge and increase understanding of history teachers in improving training skills and assistance in using Android-based media in the Covid-19 pandemic era to improve the pedagogical competence of history teachers in Bantul Regency, Yogyakarta Special Region of Indonesian history material. With this training, the understanding of history teachers has increased in training and assistance in the use of android-based media in the era of the Covid-19 pandemic to improve the pedagogical competence of history teachers in Bantul Regency, Yogyakarta Special Region of Indonesian history material. This has a direct impact on teachers for the practice of using Android-based media in the era of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Kata Kunci: application of an android-based media model , history teachers, pedagogical competencies, COVID-19