

BEAUTY GROOMING TRAINING ON THE WOMEN COMMISSION OF GKJ AMBARUKMO YOGYAKARTA

by Warda Indadiyahati, Christine Ulina Tarigan

ABSTRACT

The training aims to (1) increase knowledge techniques of makeup and proper hair styling (2) increases the ability to apply make-up and hair styling (3) analyze the usability and feasibility level of training. The training implementation method are lectures, demonstrations, and practice. Meanwhile, to analyze the usefulness and feasibility using quantitative techniques to determine the percentage of results from the activities that have been carried out with the subject of women commission in GKJ Ambarukmo Yogyakarta from teenager, adults to elderly. Implementation results training that (1) the training carried out can add insight and knowledge for participants training activities that require training activities (2) evaluation of training implementation shows if the training usability level gets the training usefulness percentage 90.31% that can categorized if the implementation the training is "very useful", while the percentage of feasibility level for training includes results, instructors, materials and facilities, shows that from the instructor aspect reached of 86.45% with the category "very feasible", percentage of material aspects reached of 89% with the category "very feasible", the percentage of facility aspects reached 91.83% with the category "very feasible" and the aspect of the results of the training implementation reached 88.06% with the category very worthy.

Kata Kunci: beauty grooming, make-up, hair styling