

Entrepreneurship Training for Enhancing Competence and Life-Skill The Limestone Village Craftsmen Keblak, Semanu, Gunung Kidul, Yogyakarta

by Naning Margasari, Musaroh and Arif Wibowo

ABSTRACT

PPM activities aimed at improving the competence of limestone in the village craftsmen Keblak, Ngeposari, Semanu GK entrepreneurial skills in order to become a better and craft products produced can fulfill the needs of consumers. Existing potential is very large village do to be developed into more advanced and sustainable.

The method used in the demonstration activities and creative design practices that lead to product innovation. Participants were also given a glimpse of competence in the field of business and business iuris accordance with the principles of entrepreneurship.

PPM activity results are very encouraging, with a target of only 25 participants, but participants who came about 50 people. In addition, the enthusiasm of the participants is very large, as shown by the active participation in the following events. They also wanted that there are activities that are assistance to the craftsmen. During this time the technology used are very simple with the assistance expected to help the creation of a simple printing machine that is practical and efficient.

Kata Kunci: life skill, entrepreneur, design