

Youth Empowerment Through Digital Literacy Education in Tepus Village, Gunungkidul, Special Region of Yogyakarta

by Sutirman, Rr. Chusnu Syarifa Dyah Kusuma, Arwan Nur Ramadhan

ABSTRACT

Youth as the pioneers of community development need to be stimulated through programs to strengthen youth capacity and increase competence in accordance with the digital technology era. Community Services in the form of youth empowerment through digital literacy education aims to: 1) increase youth understanding and awareness about the constitution of electronic information and transaction; 2) improve the ability of youth in utilizing information technology for learning resources; 3) improve the ability of youth in utilizing information technology for online businesses. The community services is implemented used the following methods: 1) increasing the capacity of youth in the seminar; 2) training in the use of digital technology; and 3) online business assistance. Community Sevices in the form of youth empowerment through digital literacy education has been implemented well and smoothly in the form of seminars, training, and assistance in the use of digital technology. Community Sevices activities have been able to increase youth understanding and awareness about the constitution of electronic information and transaction; improve the ability of youth in utilizing information technology for learning resources; and improve the ability of young people to use information technology for online businesses.

Kata Kunci: Youth Empowerment, Digital Literacy Education, Tepus Village