

Preparation Assistance Program Special Education based on curriculum 2013 in Special School Sleman Western Region

by Mumpuniarti, et al

ABSTRACT

This public service activities intended to help improve the understanding and skills of special school teachers in Sleman western Region in elaborating and operationalize curriculum in 2013 and scientific approach to learning, and improve the performance of teachers in the framework of special-ed teacher professionalism. Participants of this activities were 30 teachers from Slemanwestern region. Methods of these activities in the form of lectures and dialogues, workshops and mentoring the drafting of learning appropriate to the curriculum 2013. The proceeds of these activities related to increase the performance of teachers in defining the curriculum in 2013 into the study design plan with a scientific approach to show improvement. It is also influenced by the existence of similar trainings they often follow.

Kata Kunci: Curriculum 2013; Improving the skills structure the learning.