

Integration of Character Education in Education Administration Filing Using Experiential Learning Strategy

by Joko Kumoro, Siti Umi Khayatun Mardiyah, Sutirman

ABSTRACT

This study aims to improve the character of students in study Archival Administration through the integration of character education using Learning. Penelitian Experiential strategy includes action research (action research) using a qualitative approach. The research subject of this class action is a student of Educational Administration Office Administration Program especially UNY force FE 2015 class A and B were taking courses Filing Administration. The results showed that the integration of character education in professional ethics pembelajaran administration could improve the character of the students..

Kata Kunci: integration, character education, experientil learning