

A CRAFT MAKING AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP TRAINING FOR TEACHERS IN YOGYAKARTA HIGH SCHOOL

by Suratsih, M. Si. Dan Ratnawati, M. Sc.

ABSTRACT

Dedication to community programs implemented to date aim to: 1) Improve the capabilities and skills of teachers in making crafts and creative and innovative entrepreneurship based on the utilization of waste, and the issue of biological objects in everyday life. 2) Increase the variety of learning activities that can activate and engage students mentally, produce work, creative and innovative in learning the craft and entrepreneurship. The target audience of community service activities are the teachers craft and entrepreneurial backgrounds Biology / Science High School in Sleman regency as many as 30 teachers. Training is conducted by way of workshops, tutorials, direct practice and assignments. The training was conducted at the Laboratory of Biological Science Education UNY. Training led by Tim Pengabdi assisted by students, faculty and laboratory. Results of training conducted through workshops, tutorials, practice immediately and the assignment can provide trainees form the utilization of waste, objects and problems of biology that can be used for the manufacture of craft and entrepreneurship for students, are able to make crafts and entrepreneurship based on the utilization of waste, objects and problems of biology, and participants get a variety of alternative learning activities to enable the manufacture of mental and directs students to produce work that is creative and innovative in learning the craft and entrepreneurship.

Kata Kunci: Keywords: craft, learning, workshops, tutorials, practice immediately.