

CONTENT ANALYSIS OF GLOBAL VALUES IN CIVIC EDUCATION STUDENTS' TEXTBOOKS CLASS XII CURRICULUM 2013

by Mukhamad Murdiono, Suharno, Wuri Wuryandani

ABSTRACT

This study aimed to analyze the values of global citizenship in students' textbooks Pancasila and Citizenship Education (PPKn) Class XII Curriculum 2013. The values of global citizenship are important to develop in the global era so that students as young citizens have a good global understanding and able to interact with other citizens in various parts of the world.

This study was a content analysis. The unit of analysis in this study are the content of students textbooks PPKn for Class XII Curriculum 2013. Data collection techniques in this study conducted by direct observation and recording of the student textbooks PPKn based categorization predetermined. Analysis of the values of global citizenship contained in the book by analyzing each page of every chapter. Study the contents of the document are qualitatively with coding techniques against global citizenship values contained in the textbooks PPKn both the display of verbal (words, sentences, discourse) and visual (pictures) that have meaning values of global citizenship.

The results of this study indicate that (1) the values of global citizenship that appear in the students textbooks PPKn for class XII Curriculum 2013 include: social justice and honesty, respect for diversity, concern for the environment and sustainable development, globalization and interdependence, peace and conflict, critical thinking, the ability argues critically, the ability to fight injustice and inequality, respect for others, teamwork and conflict resolution, sense of identity and self-esteem, empathy and sense of humanity, respect for differences, inequalities and social justice, caring, personal responsibility and global interconnectedness, self-awareness, intercultural communication and global knowledge; (2) the values of citizenship of the most dominant or often appear in textbooks that the ability to argue effectively.

Kata Kunci: Global values, Civic Education, textbooks