

INNOVATION OF “SPORT COACHING GAMES” BASE ON CGFU-PM515 CONCEPT; NEW PARADIGM IN INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION 4.0 ERA

by Siswantoyo, Mansur, Gunathevan a/I Elumalai

ABSTRACT

This study aims to innovate a model of sports coaching games with CGFU-PM 515 Concept, to improve skills, performance and softskill. This developed model is aimed at innovation of multilateral coaching model to welcome the era of educational industrialization era 4.0. now the development of education has reached the speed of IT utilization very quickly. The method used in this research with Borg and Gall approach, with 10 steps. Play is an excellent alternative for developing cognitive, affective, psychomotor and social skills. Based on this, it will be developed an effective model to improve the understanding of concepts and ways of thinking of children more effectively and efficiently in learning sports. the game will be packed with creative innovations and fun based on the basic concept of multilateral motion of the sport. in this research will be developed sport coaching game, especially in kind of individual sport games, and sport team. If this is resolved properly, it will be a solution to improve early childhood motivation to learn the sport with pleasure. Within a structured period of time, there will be an increase in the ability to understand the concept of motion in the sport, be able to do well, and be fun, and improve their skills, performance, and softskill.

Kata Kunci: Sport coaching, games, understanding, upgrading performance