

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT MODEL OF BEHAVIORAL DISCIPLINE AND CLEAN CULTURE CHARACTER IN HIGHER EDUCATION

by Mutaqin and Sri Winarni

ABSTRACT

The aim of this research are: 1) want to know the characters behave disciplined implementation of education and clean culture among the students in the livers in higher education; 2) resulted in the development model the characters behave discipline and culture of a clean right to be applied among the students in the higher education environment.

This study is a research and development. The procedures in this study were: first, to shoot the implementation of character education disciplines and cultures behave net among the students; second, developing a character education model based on the development of the discipline and culture behaves clean, with a few key steps, one of which is through the FGD. Collecting data using observation, questionnaires, interviews, and documentation. Subjects were students of Yogyakarta State University (YSU). Analysis of data using qualitative descriptive technique.

It can be concluded that: (1) The implementation of character education and cultural clean-behaved student discipline in universities, showed the majority (63.33%) have a tendency in both categories, while in terms of net cultural behavior, most (53, 33%) have a tendency in the unfavorable category. (2) Provided the development of character education model behaved student discipline and net culture on campus, which is composed of three main parts, first, the determination of the values ??of character developed in character education; second, the process of habituation and empowerment through the intervention of the entire campus residents through habituation behavior and empowerment, and the third, acts or behavior were observed as a result of a process of habituation and empowerment outcomes in berkehidupan on campus.

Kata Kunci: Keywords: character education, behavioral discipline, clean culture, higher education