This training aims to provide teachers with ability of writing an article at scientific journal. This training is a kind of social service by lecturers to senior high school teachers in Kulon Progo, Yogyakarta.

This training took a place at SMAN 1 Sentolo, Kulon Progo on October, 17 2016, from 09.00-12.00 WIB. We invited 20 teachers, but only 13 came to the training. Seven teachers were not able to join the training because some of them had to teach at the class or had other official tasks. The training materials consist of (1) theory and practice of doing research, (2) different kinds of scientific articles and how to write them. The participants ask to have a continuing guidance outside this forum. Indeed, we will provide further guidance through informal meeting at the Department of History Education, Faculty of Social Sciences.
